

Christmas Tree Festival

30th November and 1st, 2nd, 3rd
December 2024

Sandy Parish Church is looking forward to hosting another Tree Festival this Christmas season.

During the first weekend of December, the church will become the backdrop for a beautiful display of decorated Christmas trees, all created by the community of Sandy. The trees will be crafted by children and youth groups as well as charities and community groups. Some trees are traditional, some modern and others will be amusing. It can be a really good opportunity to advertise your organisation or business to a wide variety of local people.

The Festival will be open from noon til 7pm on Saturday 30th November and Sunday 1st December, and from 3.30pm til 7pm on Monday 2nd and Tuesday 3rd December.

Live christmas music and refreshments will be available and entry is free.

Sandy Parish Church St. Swithun's

Is there a charge for exhibiting a tree?

There is no charge for schools, charities and non-profit making organisations, who wish to enter a tree. For Businesses entering a tree, there is a fee of £35

Guidelines for applications

Each tree should follow a theme, tell a story or represent the activity of your group or organisation. It will also require a title which is reflected by its decorations.

We invite exhibitors to be creative with their trees and decorations as the aim of the festival is to entertain the visitors.

Small Trees

There are window sills available to exhibit a number of smaller artificial trees or two dimensional cut outs made from cardboard, wood or any other rigid material with a suitable stand.

If this is a suitable option for you, then please indicate this on the booking form.
